

ETHICAL SOCKS BRANDS

1

CRITICALLY ENDANGERED SOCKS

They donate to a charity that protects the animals featured on your socks.

2

ORGANIC BASICS

I love everything about that brand: their aesthetic, their simple designs, and their ethos! They have certification (PETA approved and B corp) which guarantees they do make an impact.

3

PEOPLE TREE

People tree is one of my favourite ethical brands and deserve its reputation of market leader.

4

KIND SOCKS

I love how they revisit socks as an everyday basic, making it both ethical and fun.

5

For every pair of Jollie's bought, a pair is given to a homeless Shelter.
